Assault on Homeless Man still Unsolved

Beloved local character Graham Chester (48) is still recovering from his assault outside the Hell nightclub last month, with no police leads in site.

While Graham was minding his own business outside local weekend hotspot Hell he was violently assaulted by a mystery woman. The perpetrator, who hid her face from in any of the footage that's emerged of the incident, swiftly descended on Graham with what witnesses claimed looked like a police issue baton or night stick. One witness said the attack looked "premeditated, like she knew where she was going and what she was going to do when she got there".

The footage of the woman walking away, her ginger hair being the only recognisable feature, was shared around local Facebook groups before making its way to Twitter with the hashtags #MetMyLimit, #OfficerScottFree, #C***stable, where it was shared widely until disappearing into the online ether, or being taken down, a few days later.
