I saw Rosa leave the club and we chatted briefly. Since Graham stopped turning up my smoke breaks have been lonely, so I was glad for the company. A lot of people, the colourful characters in the area, are getting moved along because of the gentrification. I'm only still here cos of my dad. Although Graham was attacked, wasn't he, so that's a little different. Poor guy. It's a shame cos the drunk clubbers were always very generous, especially with their chips. Rosa said goodbye and started walking away, when the attacker cycled past and hit her, knocking her down and waiting on her until she stopped moving. Then they rode away. The whole thing can't have lasted more than 60 seconds. It all happened so quickly.
